June 2nd, 2025 E-Newsletter

A Note from the Pastors

Greetings!

Summer is in the air; can you feel it? You have survived another hectic school year. We hope you find time to relax, get a bit of rest and enjoy your family. At the same time, we encourage you to make worship a part of your family's summer rest and renewal.

We have included a refrigerator magnet in this mailing as a gentle reminder to "Schedule It!" When summer hits, family schedules change dramatically. Those shifts knock us out of our normal routines. We hope you will "Schedule It!" a way to find rest and renewal through worship.

A few schedule highlights for the Summer:

- Beginning Wednesday, June 11th, worship will be outside @ 6 p.m. as we worship with our VBS kids and families. Bring a lawn chair (or grab a folding chair from our garage) and enjoy a time of relaxed worship. Following worship, we will grill burgers and hotdogs.
- Beginning Sunday, June 15th, the 10:30 a.m. worship service will move to the Community Center. Stay tuned, we are planning a couple of between services Sunday brunches.
- Wednesday, July 16th, we are planning a campfire worship with a meal and s'mores after worship.
- Looking forward to August, we will be scheduling our Corn Feed/Block Party soon and our backpack blessing services.

We hope to see you in worship this summer. If you are on the road, at the lake or out camping remember all services are live streamed or check out "Trinity to Go..." on YouTube or Facebook.

Blessings,
Pastor Mark Narum, Pastor Martha HarriSon
